

Daily Announcements for Monday, January 26, 2015 – B Day

East/Holicong Tutoring: East/Holicong tutoring for Tuesday afternoon is canceled.

Holicong 9th Grade Students: The Course Selection Portal for current 9th grade students closes on Sunday, February 1st. As of today, the majority of students have not entered their course requests for 10th grade. Please enter your course requests via the portal as soon as possible. If you have questions, please contact your Guidance Counselor.

Holicong 9th Grade Cook-Off: Mrs. Flath would like to thank all of the participants and the judges of the 9th grade cook-off. The winners of the 9th grade cook-off are: Kitchen #5 won the chocolate cook-off with their Milk Chocolate Panna Cotta Kitchen; Kitchen #3 won the cookie cook-off with their Flower Sandwiches and Kitchen #2 won the pizza cook-off with their Brooklyn Style Brick Oven Pizza. Congratulations!

Seussical Art Crew: We will meet Wednesday, January 28th and Thursday, January 29th until 4:20.

Holicong Music Department: Mr. Glaser has the computer lab today for anyone who still has more work to do for 2nd marking period. Please check your chorus grade on parent portal one more time this week to make sure you don't have any work that you need to do. Robe, H-Factor and 7th grade chorus continue to listen for announcements and watch Mr. Glaser's website and Edmodo for any weather related changes to this week's rehearsal schedule. The next practice for robe choir and H-Factor is today after school.

Vh-1 Concert Information: There are only 200 tickets left for each of the evening Vh-1 concerts. If you want to be sure to get a seat, be sure to purchase them ASAP. The link for tickets is on the Holicong website! Robe, Jazz, Wind and String members..... Tuesday is the deadline to submit ads for the Vh-1 pre-show. Remember, if you get someone to purchase an ad it helps defray the cost of your Dorney Park trip. If you need more copies of the business letter, see one of the music teachers.

KVT Challenge: Our next KVT challenge is rapidly approaching! Starting on Monday, January 26th, Holicong will be hosting its KVT Basketball Knockout Competition. Not only will this next challenge provide friendly competition to all those involved, but it also benefits a worthy cause. We are asking for a $2 entry fee, and all proceeds go to the American Cancer Society to benefit Coaches VS. Cancer. In order to compete, you must bring $2 and show it to your resource teacher and then report to the gym. The three grades will all compete on different days. The schedule is as follows: Monday, January 26: 9th grade; Wednesday, January 28: 8th grade; Thursday, January 29: 7th grade. The top 5 boys and top 5 girls from each grade will move on to the championship round that will take place on Friday, January 30. Don't forget to bring in $2 to help your team win and earn points and benefit a great cause!

C B East Field Hockey: There will be an informational meeting for any 8th or 9th graders interested in playing field hockey this upcoming Fall season for C B East. The meeting will be held on Tuesday, February 17th at 7:00PM in the C B East Cafeteria. The meeting is for players and parents.

PE Classes: Holicong's Physical Education Department is still collecting donations for the American Heart Association. We are asking for donations of $1 at the beginning of each PE class. If you are not taking PE this marking period, you can still donate. You have a chance of winning one of two items next Tuesday, January 27th: A signed Flyers hockey stick or 4 Flyers tickets. If you would like an opportunity to enter the drawing for the hockey stick or tickets, please see Mr. Cochran or Mrs. Hendershot with your donation. To be eligible for the prizes you must donate $5 or more. You will receive 1 ticket for each $5.
